

WINESMITHS

— COLOMBARD CHARDONNAY —

In 1849 a young man by the name of Samuel Smith, with a passion for horticulture, purchased 30 acres of land in the newly settled Angaston. He planted a vineyard and an orchard, which grew to bear fruit and his family prospered. 170 years of winemaking and horticulture later, the elm trees he planted still overlook Smith's original garden and his great-great-grandson continues the family tradition of winemaking, horticulture and craftsmanship. Five generations of Winesmiths have created this timeless range of premium cask wines.

TASTING NOTE

This light, bright white zings with the crispness of green papaya, mint, kiwifruit, tangerine zest and lemon, delivering a crisp, tangy finish. Perfect with a grilled prawn summer salad.
