

WINESMITHS

DRY ROSÉ

In 1849 a young man by the name of Samuel Smith, with a passion for horticulture, purchased 30 acres of land in the newly settled Angaston. He planted a vineyard and an orchard, which grew to bear fruit and his family prospered. 170 years of winemaking and horticulture later, the elm trees he planted still overlook Smith's original garden and his great-great-grandson continues the family tradition of winemaking, horticulture and craftsmanship. Five generations of Winesmiths have created this timeless range of premium cask wines.

A stylish rosé refreshingly crisp.

TASTING NOTE

This refreshing Rosé is hard to beat. Watermelon pink in colour, this is a wine that is alive with fresh strawberry, Turkish delight and musk aromas that flow through to a refreshingly crisp, dry palate. Enjoy with fresh rockmelon wrapped in prosciutto.
